State Items Briefly Told

Williamsburg.—Public schools of Toano will open for the fall term Wednesday, September 9.

Richmond.—The public schools of Henrico county will open for the fall session September 14.

Winchester. — Littleton Taswell Whitley, one of the oldest Confederate veterans in Virginia, died at Relief, near here, in his 100th year.

Ashland.—The thirtieth annual picnic of the Farmers' Relief Association was held last week on the Richmond-Tappahannock Highway.

Roanoke.—Net income of the Norfolk and Western Railway Company for July was $2,178,308.55, according to the monthly statement just made public.

Winchester.—Water has become so scarce here that it will have to be rationed, unless consumers practice the most rigid economy, according to City Manager L. R. Dattra.

Richmond.—Recruiting campaign cash prizes for Virginia national guard units will not be awarded until after the Twenty-ninth Division encampment at the State Rifle Range.

Washington.—The Shipping Board has approved the leasing of the Norfolk army base belonging to the board to the Norfolk Tidewater Terminals, to be operated in conjunction with the municipal terminals.

Winchester.—The annual convention of the Virginia Real Estate Association will be held here October 15-17, it was announced. It had been announced in Richmond that the convention would be held October 8-10.

Charlottesville.—Boyd A. Bennett, city manager of Charlottesville for the last three years, has resigned to accept a similar position in Bluefield, W. Va., at a considerable increase in salary.

Waynesboro.—To take the place of the bus "Blue Ridge," wrecked when the freight train demolished the depot at Rash a few weeks ago, J. L. Fisher has placed a fifteen-passenger bus in the Staunton-Charlottesville service.

Luray.—Daily receipts of the Luray postoffice, which is a second class office, shows an increase of 44 per cent. within the last two months. This increase is due to heavy mailing of souvenirs and cards by tourists.

Bristol.—Frequent forays by officers armed to the teeth with shotguns, high-powered rifles and revolvers mark the search that is being conducted daily in the mountains of Southwest Virginia for Kinzie Wagner, youthful slayer and desperado.

Richmond.—Harry R. Houston, of Hampton, will be the next Commissioner of Fisheries and of Game and Inland Fisheries. That is the gossip that reaches Richmond as one of the choicest bits of post-primary news.

Warrenton.—In spite of numerous arrests in Fauquier county lately but six prisoners are now confined to the county jail in Warrenton. This speaks well for the prompt distribution of justice.

South Boston.—The Halifax County Fair will be held this year October 20, 21, 22, and 23, according to announcement made here by W. W. Wilkins, superintendent of the Halifax County Fair Association.

Richmond.—The memorial, erected by the Maryland, Delaware and District of Columbia State Associations of Elks to the memory of the late President Harding, was dedicated at the Elks' Home, Bedford, Va., Sunday afternoon.

Newport News.—Carl B. Payne has been named commissary officer of the National Soldiers' Home, at Phoebus, to succeed Captain T. J. Colfer, resigned. Mr. Payne was formerly an auditor at the shipyard here. He was a soldier in the World War.

Richmond. — Director of Public Works R. Keith Compton acted within his rights as city official in awarding a contract for certain street work without first advertising for bids. This was made clear by Assistant City Attorney Lucius P. Cary, in an opinion on the subject given Councilman Edgar B. English.

South Boston.—According to information brought here by farmers, at least ten tobacco growers of Granville county, N. C., in the vicinity of Buffalo Lithia Springs and Virginia, have been threatened by so-called "Night Riders," who have warned them that unless they pooled their tobacco this year, they would be prevented from marketing their 1926 crop otherwise.

Danville.—The city of Danville will ask the government for the use of the Federal courtroom in this city during the building of the new courthouse. Steps have already been taken to acquaint the treasury department with the request and the belief prevails that it will be granted.

Timberville.—The dairy plant of Oscar L. Lohr in the western part of town was destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of between $12,000 and $20,000. It is believed the fire was caused by overheated alfalfa.

PAUL IN CORINTH

LESSON TEXT—Acts 18:1-11.

GOLDEN TEXT—"Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace."—Acts 18:9.

PRIMARY TOPIC—God Protecting Paul.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul in Workshop and Pulpit.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paul's Experiences in Corinth.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Paul Plants the Church in Corinth

I. The True Missionary Method (vv. 1-3).

Paul came to Corinth a stranger in a strange city. He did not have an advance agent to do his advertising. His method in gaining a foothold in Corinth was as follows:

1. Finding a Home (v. 2).

This he found with Aquila and Priscilla, Jews, who were recently expelled from Rome by the cruel edict of Claudius.

2. He Toiled for His Daily Bread (v. 3).

He was of the same craft with them, being a tentmaker. Every child among the Jews was taught some trade by means of which he could gain a livelihood, should occasion require.

3. Preaching in the Synagogue at Corinth (vv. 4-8).

1. Though Compelled to Toil for a Living While Getting a Foothold in Corinth, He Did Not Lose Sight of His Main Work (v. 4).

He reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, persuading the Jews and Greeks. While the missionary should not be above honest toil when necessity arises, he must not allow toil to interfere with preaching the gospel.

2. His Activity Was Increased When Silas and Timothy Came (v. 5).

This resulted from three causes:

(1) They brought good news from the church at Thessalonica (I Thess. 3:6).

To hear of the steadfastness of those who had confessed Christ under his ministry, put new vigor into his heart.

(2) They brought pecuniary gifts from the Macedonian church (Phil. 4:15; II Cor. 11:9).

Being relieved from the necessity of toiling for a living, he could now devote more time and energy to the preaching of the gospel.

(3) Silas and Timothy became assistants to Paul in the work.

3. Paul Opposed (v. 6).

His increased activity was met with increased opposition. As the Lord's ministers grow more aggressive in their work, the ministers of Satan put forth corresponding efforts in opposition.

4. Paul Announces His Purpose to Turn to the Gentiles (v. 6).

Because of their blasphemy and opposition, he ceased to work among the Jews. There is a time when good judgment causes one to abandon work where efforts have been fruitless, but it is difficult to know just when to do it. Oftentimes lasting harm is done to the work by pressing efforts when people have turned against the truth. Paul's declaration, "I am clean," was a most solemn declaration.

5. He Did Not Go Far Away (v. 7).

He remained sufficiently near those whose hearts God had touched that they could easily find him. It is likewise true that although Christ is obliged to depart from the soul that refuses Him entrance, He lingers with yearning love around that heart.

6. His Success (v. 8).

Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, was converted. Perhaps Paul's success in turning many away from them moved Crispus to act.

III Paul's Vision (vv. 9-11).

His experiences since coming to Europe were very trying. He needed encouragement at this time. It is just like the Lord to come at the time of the servant's greatest need. Note the Lord's words to him.

1. "Be Not Afraid." When one is executing the commission of the Lord, he need not be afraid.

2. "Speak and Hold Not Thy Peace." The one who has heard the voice of God cannot refrain from speaking. He cannot be still.

3. "I Am With Thee." The Lord is with every one who faithfully carries out His commission.

4. "No Man Shall Set on Thee, to Hurt Thee."

The one sent by the Lord to do a work is immune from danger and harm until his work is done.

5. "I Have Much People in This City." It is most encouraging to know that in the great cities the Lord has His own people, and that the one who goes in His name shall have fruit for his service.

All Are His

It is not the high summer alone that is God's. The winter also is His . . . and all man's winters are His—the winter of our poverty, the winter of our sorrow, the winter of unhappiness, even the winter of our discontent.—George MacDonald.

Character

Character requires a still air. There may be storm and upheaval around, but there must be peace within for the soul to thrive.—Rev. T. T. Munger.

FOREST VIEW

We have had a fine rain since our last correspondence and the gardens, etc. have revived very much.

There is right much sickness around. We are sorry that Mr. Henry Morris does not improve any, but glad to say Mrs. Z. M. Jones is better after a severe spell of rheumatism.

We hope Mr. N. D. Marshall will improve faster now than he has been, after having his toe amputated. It is giving him some trouble.

J. B. Ford is out again after being on the sick last last week.

Mr. R. W. Martin is at his work again after being somewhat indisposed for a few days.

The farmers were so glad to see the rain so they can prepare their wheat land. Some late tobacco has not been cut and has made a good start to grow.

Mr. Z. M. Jones has returned from a trip to Richmond.

Miss Bernice Ford has accepted a position in Lynchburg. She will be missed in this neighborhood.

Many farmers of this neighborhood attended the County Meeting or Mass Meeting at Appomattox last Saturday and heard some good speeches on Co-operative Marketing.

ROCKS NEWS

We are sorry to say that Mr. Jim Ranson's leg is worse. He cut it some time ago.

Miss May Shorter visited her aunt Miss Addie Dawson Sunday.

Mr. W. Dickerson was quite sick Sunday but is better. He is with his sister, Mrs. Albert Baldwin, whose husband died nearly a year ago.

The Rocks and Harmony schools begin Wednesday, with Miss Ella Epperley teacher for Rocks, and Miss Gertrude Ranson, teacher for Harmony.

Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Roche and son of Roanoke were at the home of Mr. D. R. Inge Saturday p. m.

Mr. Roy Garrett returned to his home in Richmond last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Roche and son spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs W. T. Ranson of Evergreen.

Many of the Rocks people have been attending the show at Evergreen.

VERA

Nearly all the crops have been harvested and now after the good soaking rain we had last week, fallowing for wheat, etc., will be next in order, then comes corn shucking.

School opens all over the county on Wednesday the 7th. The youngsters seem anxious to get to their studies once more, or is it to meet their playmates?

After many attempts, a n d much wrangling, the patrons of Liberty Chapel have at last gotten the promise of a schoolwagon to run from Wildway to Liberty Chapel school. We don't understand why this particular piece of road should have to use so much energy to get a schoolwagon. They seem to get them on all the other roads.

The County Fair will open on the 14th. This part of the county expects to be fully represented in attendance, and there will probably be some entries, altho this has been a bad year for the farmers to make any kind of an exhibit.

Our young friend Grover Childers, 14-year old son of Mr. and and Mrs W. L. Childers, carried off the blue ribbon with a ten dollar prize for dark wrapper tobacco at the Lynchburg Fair last week. Congratulations Grover.

An aeroplane passed over this section about 9:30 Monday morning, going east. Aeroplanes are not so common that they have ceased to be of interest around here, and whenever their buzz is heard the people flock to their doors to see them.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Reynolds had as their guests, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Smith, Misses Hazel, Alma and Joy Smith and Forrest Smith, also Mr. Garrison, all of Lynchburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Trent visited Lynchburg Saturday.

Mr. Trent returned Monday but Mrs. Trent will remain a week and visit friends there.

Mrs. Wm. Beale, Mr. S. T. Megginson, Sr., Messrs. Clarence and James Beale visited Lynchburg last week.

Mrs. Sallie Davidson, of Lynchburg, who has been visiting relatives here the past month, returned home Saturday.

Miss Violet Nuttycombe visited Washington last week.

Miss Otys Childers and Miss Sara Watts, of Lynchburg, also Mrs LeFew and Arnold Childers were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Childers.

It is reported that Miss Bessie Weekly, one of Stapleton's fair daughters, and Mr. Warren Martin, of Roanoke met in Lynchburg not long ago and "unbeknownst" to several friends who were with them, slipped around the corner and were married. They all went together to Washington, where the fatal news "slipped out," as in the days of now.

Mr. and Mrs H. W. Kinney and Miss Daisey Bell went to Red House Sunday to a one-day Convention of the International Bible Students' Association. The subject of discourse was "The King in Action," proclaiming that the Lord is now on earth, making ready to set up His "Righteous Government." The meeting was well attended by students from Lynchburg, Roanoke, Rustburg, Keyaville, Clifton Forge, PleasantView, Brooklyn, N. Y., Appomattox and Vera. After morning service, a feast of good things was provided by the good women of the meeting and was enjoyed by all, after which the afternoon service was held. They then adjourned to meet again at Brookneal on Sunday the 18th

The teachers who have been employed to teach the Vera school are Miss Wise, Principal, Miss Alice Street, Miss Mamie Inge and Miss Bettie Morriss, Assistants. Those who will teach Liberty Chapel School are Miss Francis Street, Principal, Miss Zeigler and Miss Addie Childers, Assistants.

STONEWALL

Mrs. G. A. Stratten is visiting relatives in Lynchburg.

Miss Allie Alvis, of Farmville, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Alvis for the week end.

Miss Elizabeth Rice, of Richmond, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Anderson.

Mrs. Sallie Floyd Watson, of Wytheville, arrived last week to be principal of Stonewall School.

Mrs. Watson is residing with Mrs. E. H. Carson. Misses Colyer Abbitt and Ruth Clement, of Appomattox, are the grade teachers. Miss Abbitt will board with Mrs. Russell Turnes and Miss Clement will motor from home daily.

Miss Lucelle Dudley of Appomattox, Miss Evelyn Cullock of Spout Springs, Davis Street and room mate, and Mr. West of University were week end guests in the home of Rev. J. M. Street for the Silver Wedding on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stratten of Lynchburg, and Mrs. John Jennings, who has been visiting them and other relatives in North Carolina and Amherst, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Jennings Sunday. Mrs. Jennings will spend the winter with them.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Jennings and children, of Lynchburg, Alton Drinkard, of Charlottesville, were Sunday guests of T. A. Drinkard.

Mrs. J. R. Burnette spent last week in Lynchburg.

Men and Money Make this Bank Secure.

THERE are two ways of measuring the strength and standing of a bank. In the first place money resources—capital and surplus—give it financial strength.

In the second place—and perhaps even more important—are men, the officers and directors. They give the bank character, determine and execute its policies.

This is a strong bank, a helpful bank because it has ample resources, and a personnel of proven character and ability.
